

BOOK

2ND.

Records for securing the Copy Right of Authors &c Book 2<sup>d</sup>— note

Many title pages on file were not recorded in this volume

District of New Hampshire to wit

Be it remembered that on the seventh day of October in the forty fifth year of the Independence of the United States of America Harrison Gray of the said District hath deposited in this office the title of a Book the right whereof he claims as Proprietor in the words following "Impartial Review. - A general brief view of the existing controversy between Unitarians and the Orthodox, so called; as appears in some late publications, more particularly in a Review in "The Christian Disciple"; of Professor Stuart's letters, and Dr. Woods letters to Unitarians. - By a Laical Observer. - "What is the Chaff to the Wheat?" -

in conformity to the act of the Congress of the United States, entitled "An Act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of Maps charts and books to the Authors and proprietors of such copies during the times therein mentioned" -

Peiton W. Freeman Clerk of the District of New Hampshire

District of New Hampshire to wit

Be it remembered that on the seventeenth day of January in the forty fifth year of the Independence of the United States of America Samuel Marshall of the said District hath deposited in this office the title of a book the right whereof he claims as Proprietor in the words following.

"A Portraiture of Shakerism exhibiting a general view of their Character and conduct from the first appearance of Ann Lee in New-England down to the present time and certified by many respectable authorities. By Mary Dyer" in conformity to the act of the Congress of the United States, entitled "An Act for the encouragement of learning by securing the copies of maps, charts and books to the authors and proprietors of such copies during the times therein mentioned."

Peyton R Freeman Clerk of the District of New Hampshire

District of New Hampshire to wit -
Be it remembered that on the twenty fourth day of February in the forty fifth year of the Independence of the United States of America John L Parkhurst of the said District hath deposited in this office the title of a Book the right whereof he claims as Author in the words following. - "A Systematic Introduction to English Grammar. By John L. Parkhurst" in conformity to the Act of the Congress of the United States, entitled "An Act for the encouragement of learning by securing the copies of maps, charts and Books to the Authors and Proprietors of such copies during the times therein mentioned."

Peyton R Freeman Clerk of the
District of New Hampshire

District of New Hampshire to wit

Be it remembered that on the fourteenth day of April in the forty fifth year of the Independence of the United States of America Hill and Moore of the said District have deposited in this Office the title of a book the right whereof they claim as proprietors in the words following. - "An abridgment of Lectures on Rhetoric, By

"Hugh Blair, D.D. carefully revised and corrected, by an experienced teacher. - To which are added appropriate questions." in conformity to an Act of the Congress of the United States entitled "An Act for the encouragement of learning by securing the copies of maps, charts and books to the Authors and proprietors of such copies during the times therein mentioned." -

Peyton R Freeman Clerk of the District of New Hampshire -

District of New Hampshire: - to wit
Be it remembered, That on the thirteenth day of August A.D. 1821 and in the forty sixth year of the independence of the United States of America, Wibird Penhallow of the said District, hath deposited in this office the title of a book, the title whereof he claims as author in the words following viz. "The Portsmouth Directory, containing names of the inhabitants, their occupations, places of business and dwelling houses, with lists of the streets, lanes and wharves; the town officers, public officers and banks, and other useful information;"

in conformity to the act of the Congress of the United States, entitled "an act for the encouragement of learning by securing the copies of maps, charts and books to the Authors and proprietors of such copies, during the times therein mentioned." -

William Claggett Clerk of the District of
New Hampshire

District of New Hampshire: Unit

Be it remembered, That on the third day of November A.D. 1821, and in the forty sixth year of the independence of the United States of America, Hill and Moore of the said District, have deposited in this office the title of a book, the right whereof they claim as proprietors, in the words following: "Trial of Daniel Davis Farmer for the murder of the widow Anna Ayer at Coffstown on the 4th of April A.D. 1821. Reported by Artemas Rogers and Henry B. Chase, Counsellors at Law."

In conformity to the act of the Congress of the United States, entitled "An act for the encouragement of learning by securing the copies of maps, charts and books to the authors and proprietors of such copies, during the times therein mentioned."

William Claggett, Clerk of
the District of New Hampshire,

District of New Hampshire: to wit

Be it remembered that on the 20th day of November AD 1821 and in the forty sixth year of the Independence of the United States of America Will and Moore of the said District have deposited in this office the title of a book, the right whereof they claim as proprietors in the words following, viz.
"An Ecclesiastical Register of New Hampshire, containing a succinct account of the different religious denominations; their origin and progress, and present numbers; with a catalogue of the Ministers of the several churches, from 1638 to 1822, the date of their settlement, removal or death, and the number of communicants in 1821. By John Farmer." In conformity to the act of the Congress of the United States, entitled "An act for the encouragement of learning by securing the copies of maps, charts and books to the authors and proprietors of such copies, during the times therein mentioned; and also to an act, entitled an act supplementary to an act, entitled An act for the encouragement of learning by securing the copies of maps, charts and books to the authors and proprietors of such copies, during the times therein mentioned; and extending the benefits thereof to the arts of designing, engraving and etching historical, and other prints" William Claggett Clerk of the District of New Hampshire

District of New Hampshire. Court.

Be it remembered, that on the third day of January, 1822 and in the forty sixth year of the Independence of the United States of America, Charles Richardson and Elipha Hannum, of the said District, have reported in this office the title of a book, the right whereof they claim as proprietors, in the words following: "The life and confessions of Daniel Davis Faneuil, who was executed at Concord, N. H. on the third day of January, 1822, for the murder of the widow Anna Ague, at Goffstown, on the 4th of April, 1821, to which is added his recollectory address and some of his correspondence during his imprisonment. Written by himself."

In conformity to the act of the Congress of the United States, entitled "An act for the encouragement of learning by securing the copies of Maps, Charts and Books, to the authors and proprietors of such copies during the times therein mentioned."

William Claggett, Clerk
of the District of New Hampshire.

District of New Hampshire, to wit -
Be it remembered that on the twenty second day of January A.D. 1822 and in the forty sixth year of the Independence of the United States of America, John Farmer of the said district has deposited in this office the title of a Book, the right whereof he claims as propri-etor in the words following, viz - "The new Military Guide; containing, extracts from the constitution of the United States and of New Hampshire; organization of the militia of New Hampshire; Duty of officers, non commissioned officers and privates; Miscellaneous rules for the observance of officers; a system for forming, inspecting, organizing and reviewing a regiment; extracts from Gen. Scott's military institutes; object, general powers and duties of courts martial, courts of inquiry &c.
Acts of honors relating to the militia; the order of uniform for the infantry established by the commander in Chief; Different forms used by the militia with instructions for filling them up; Form of keeping a regimental Roster, and directions for keeping records compiled for the use of the Militia: In company

& the act of the Congress of the United States, entitled "An act for the encouragement of learning by securing the copies of maps, charts and books to the authors and proprietors of such copies, during the times therein mentioned;
and also to an act, entitled an act supplementary to an act, entitled "An act for the encouragement of learning by securing the copies of maps, charts & books to the authors and proprietors of such copies, during the times therein mentioned; and extending the benefits thereof to the acts of designing, engraving and etching historical, and other prints."

William Claggett, Clerk
of the District of New Hampshire

District of New Hampshire - Town
Be it remembered that on the twenty ninth day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty two and in the forty sixth year of the Independence of the United States of America, Nathaniel Cookin the said District hath deposited in this office the title of a book or nautical chart the right whereof he claims as author, in the words following, viz "Navigation made easy, simplified by two comprehensive Tables, with explanations, &c. a Practical Navigator." In conformity to the act of the Congress of the United States, entitled "An act for the encouragement of learning by securing the copies of maps, charts and books to the authors & proprietors of such copies, during the times therein mentioned, and also to an act, entitled an act ~~for the encouragement~~ supplementary to an act, entitled an act for the encouragement of learning by securing the copies of maps, charts and books to the authors and proprietors of such copies during the times therein mentioned; and extending the benefits thereof to the acts of designing, engraving and etching historical, and other prints." William Claggett, Clerk
of the District of New Hampshire

District of New Hampshire: town.

Be it remembered that on the sixth day of March A.D. 1822, and in the forty sixth year of the Independence of the United States of America, I L. Blake of the said district hath deposited in this office the title of a book the right whereof he claims as author, in the words following. viz. "Questions for the examination of scholars in" "Conversations on Natural Philosophy". By Rev. J. L. Blake. A. M. Principal of the Young Ladies' Literary School. Concord, N. H. "In conformity to the act of the Congress of the United States, entitled "An act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps, charts and books to the authors and proprietors of such copies, during the times therein mentioned; and also to an act, entitled an act supplementary to an act, entitled An act for the encouragement of learning by securing the copies of maps, charts and books to the authors and proprietors of such copies, during the times therein mentioned, and extending the benefits thereof to the arts of designing, engraving and etching historical, and other prints."

William Claggett, Clerk
of the District of New Hampshire.

District of New Hampshire: to wit.

Be it remembered that on the sixth day of March AD 1822, and in the forty sixth year of the Independence of the United States of America William and Moses of the said district have deposited in this office the title of a book, the right whereof they claim as proprietors in the words following, viz: "The Abridgment of Lectures on Rhetoric. By Hugh Blair, D.D.
Greatly improved by the addition to each chapter of appropriate questions. By Rev. J. L. Blake, A.M.
Principal of the Young Ladies' Literary School, Concord, New Hampshire." In conformity to the act of the Congress of the United States, entitled "An act for the encouragement of learning by securing the copies of maps, charts, and books to the authors and proprietors of such copies, during the terms therein mentioned; and also to an act, entitled an act supplementary to an act, entitled An act for the encouragement of learning by securing the copies of maps, charts and books to the authors and proprietors of such copies, during the terms therein mentioned, and extending the benefits thereof to the arts of designing, engraving and etching historical, and other prints."

William Claggett, Clerk of
the District of New Hampshire.

District of New Hampshire:- town

Be it remembered that on the thirtieth day of April A. D. 1822 and in the forty sixth year of the Independence of the United States of America, John Wentiss of the said District hath deposited in this office the title of a book, the right whereof he claims as proprietor in the words following, viz - "Questions adapted to a <sup>by Reuben Hills</sup> Murray's English Grammar" - in conformity to the act of the Congress of the United States, entitled "an act for the encouragement of learning by securing the copies of maps, charts & books to the authors and proprietors of such copies, during the times therein mentioned; and also to an act, entitled an act supplementary to an act, entitled an act for the encouragement of learning by securing the copies of maps, charts and books to the authors and proprietors of such copies, during the times therein mentioned and extending the benefits thereof to the arts of designing engraving and etching historical, and other prints."

William Claggett, Clerk of the District of New Hampshire.

District of New Hampshire: to wit

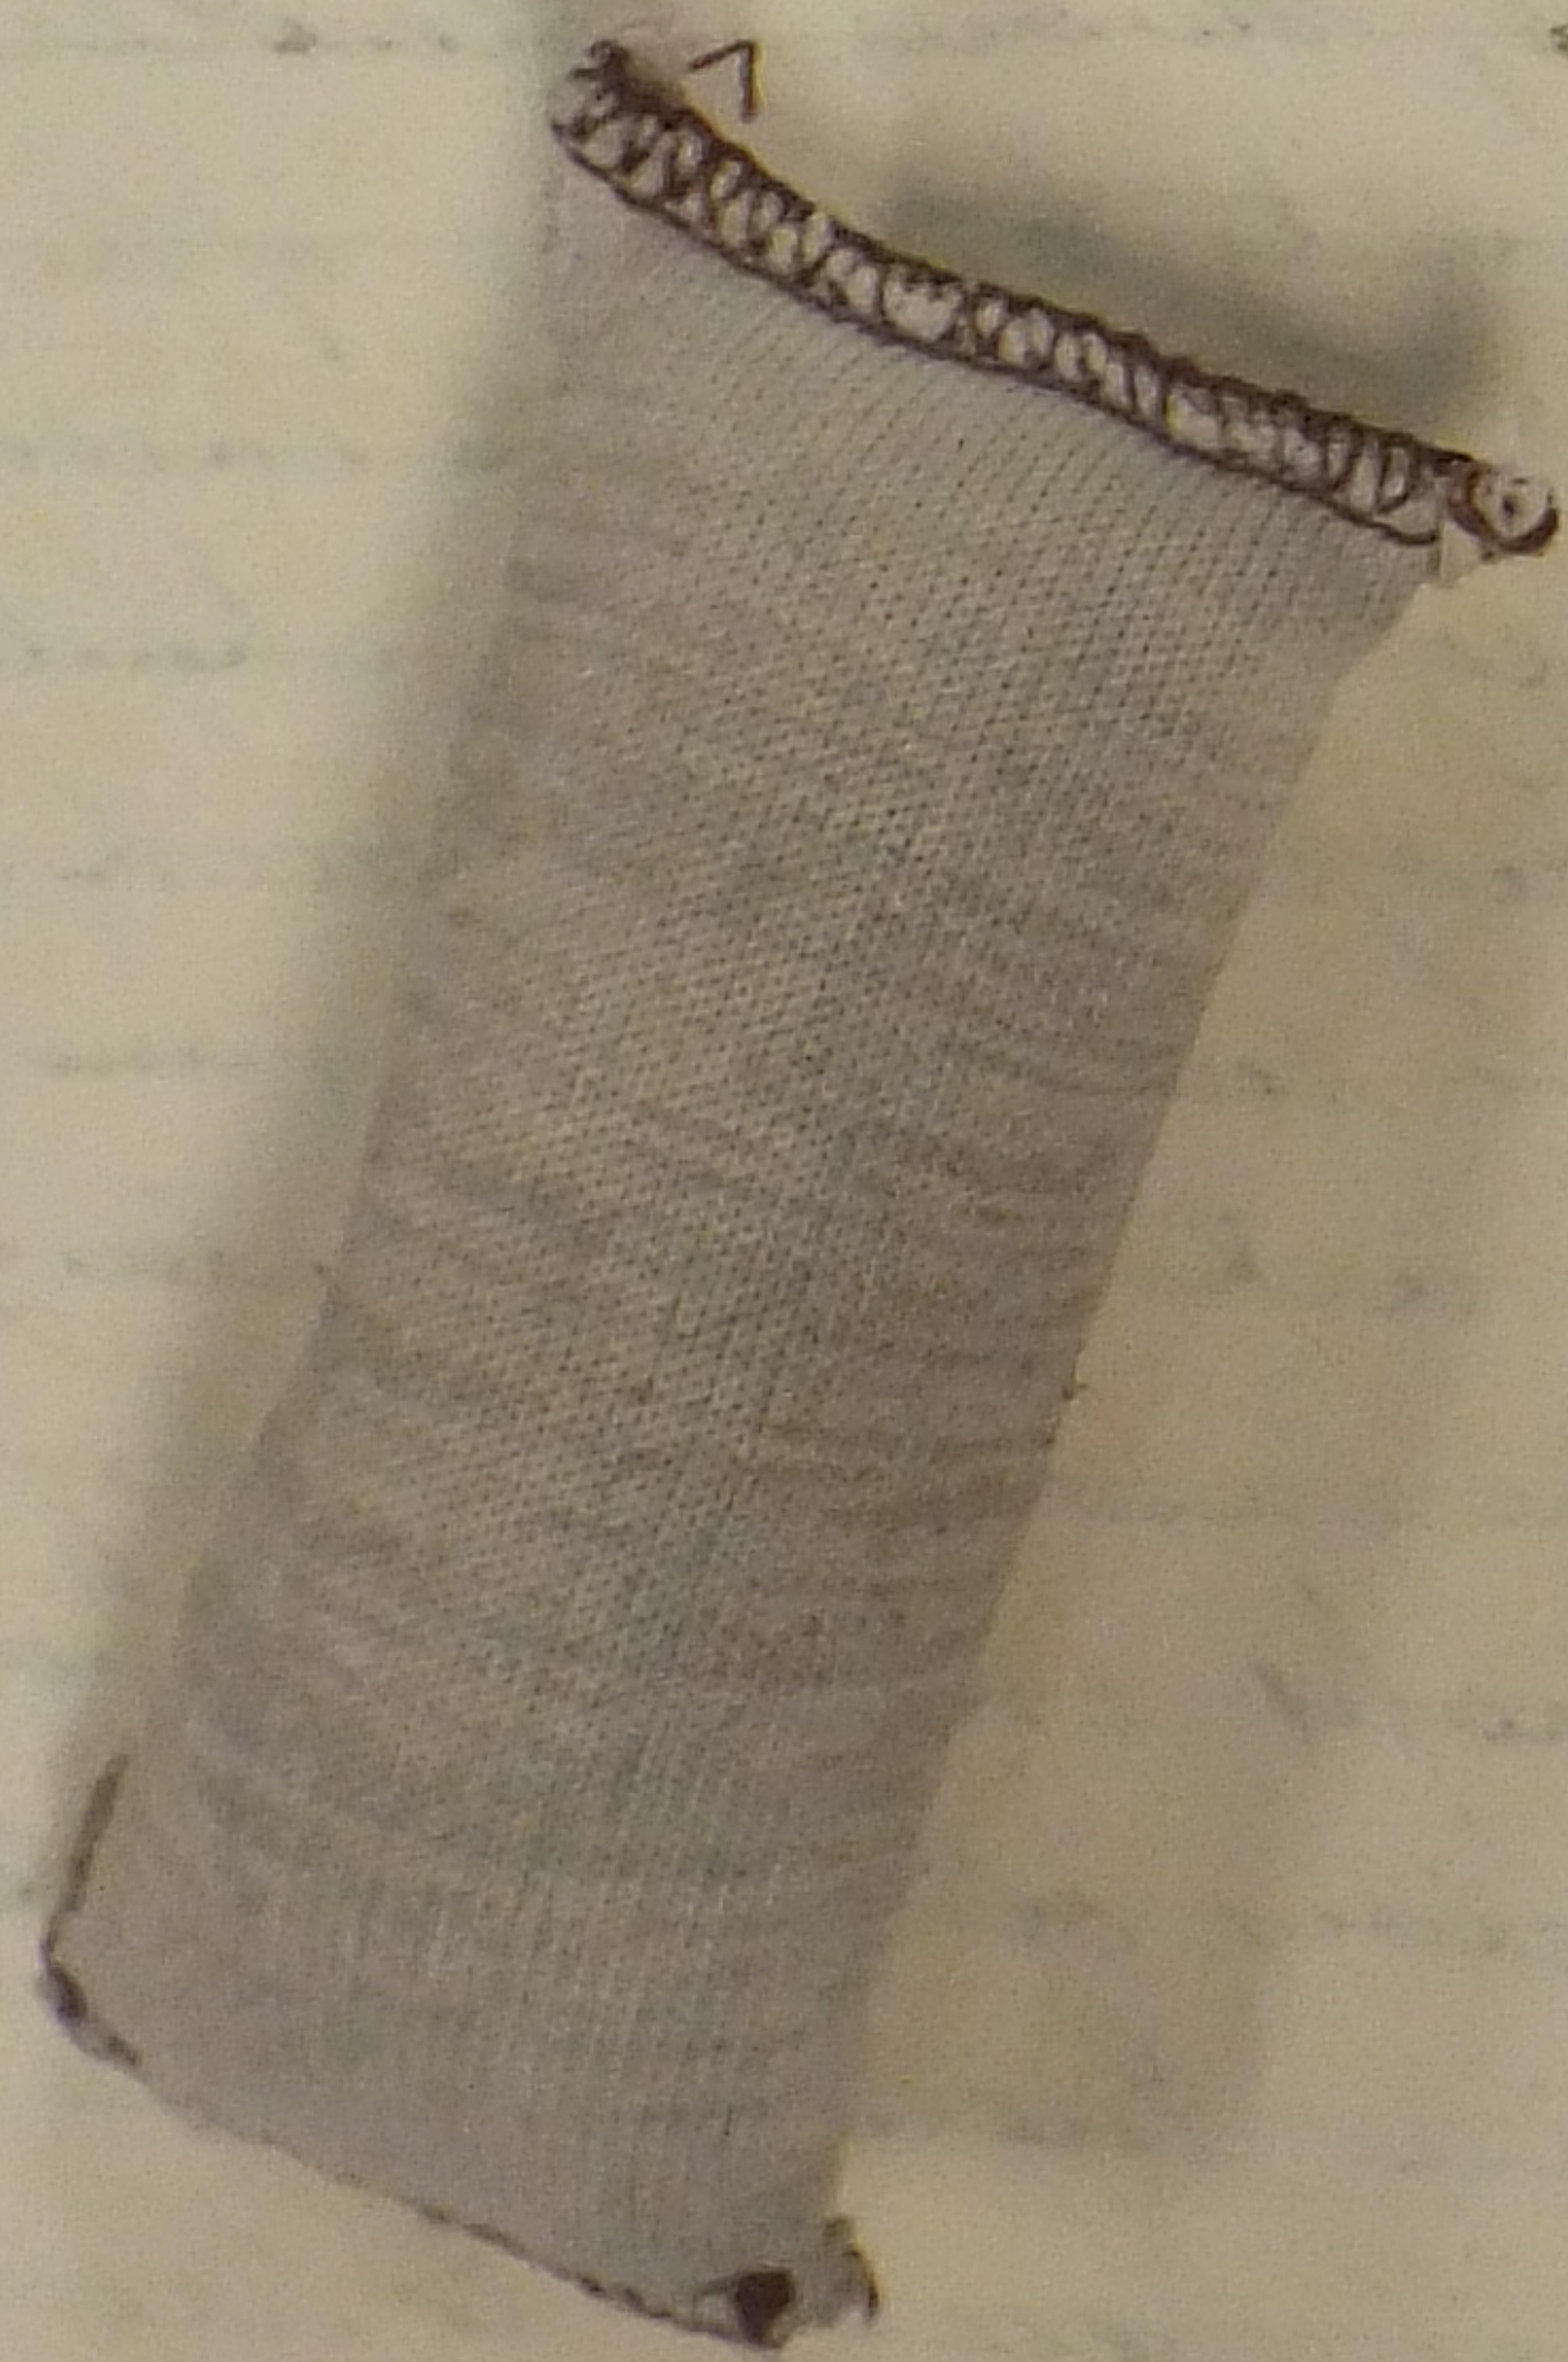

Be it remembered that on the fourteenth day of May A.D. 1822 and in the forty sixth year of the Independence of the United States of America, John M. Dudley of the said District hath deposited in this office the title ~~page~~ of a Book, the right whereof he claims as author in the words following ~~and~~ "The Soldiers' Companion; containing a short Drill for company Discipline, selected and arranged on the principles of the army regulations, &c. &c. By J. M. Dudley, author of the sword Exercise for Artillery, Teacher of Military Tactics, sword Master, &c. &c."

In conformity to the act of the Congress of the United States entitled "An act for the encouragement of learning by securing the copies of maps, charts and books to the authors and Proprietors of such copies, during the times therein mentioned; and also to an act entitled an act supplementary to an act, entitled an act for the encouragement of learning by securing the copies of maps, charts and books to the authors and Proprietors of such copies, during the times therein mentioned, and extending the benefits thereof to the acts of

designing engraving and etching historical,
and other prints."

William Claggett, Clerk
of the District of New Hampshire

District of New Hampshire, Town

Be it remembered, that on the 29th day of May A.D.
1822 and in the forty sixth year of the independence of the United States of America, Tobias H. Miller of the said district hath deposited in this office the title of a book, the right whereof he claims as proprietor, in the words following, viz -

"An Orthographical Catechism, or a Collection for Beginners.

By a Teacher." In conformity to the act of the Congress of the United States, entitled "an act for the encouragement of learning by securing the copies of maps, charts and books to the authors and proprietors ~~therein~~ of such copies, during the times therein mentioned; and also to an act <sup>an act</sup> entitled, supplementary to an act, entitled an act for the encouragement of learning by securing the copies of maps, charts & books to the authors and proprietors of such copies, during the times therein mentioned and extending the benefits thereof to the arts of designing engraving and etching historical & other prints."

William Claggett, Clerk of
the District of New Hampshire.

New Hampshire District, Rowit

Be it remembered, that on the first day of August A.D. 1822 and in the forty seventh year of the Independence of the United States of America, John Farmer, Jacob B. Moore and Abel Bowen, of the said District have deposited in this office the title of a Book, the right whereof they claim as proprietors, in the words following, to wit; "The Pocket Gazetteer of the State of New Hampshire. By John Farmer and Jacob Bailey Moore. Embellished with a new and accurate Map of the State, and several other engravings. By Abel Bowen."

In conformity to the act of the Congress of the United States, entitled, "The act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps, charts, and books, to the authors and proprietors of such copies, during the times therein mentioned;" and also, to an act, entitled, "The act, supplementary to an act, entitled, an act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps, charts, and books, to the authors and proprietors of such copies, during the times therein mentioned, and extending the benefits thereof to the arts of designing, engraving and etching historical and other prints." William Claggett, Clerk of the District of New Hampshire.

District of New Hampshire, Court,

Be it remembered, that on the thirtieth day of July A.D. 1822 and in the forty seventh year of the independence of the United States of America George Samson of the said District has deposited in this office the title of a book, the right whereof he claims as proprietor in the words following, to wit

"A treatise on the Law relative to merchant ships and seamen: in four parts, I. of the owners of merchant ships; II. of the persons employed in the navigation thereof; III. of the carriage of goods therein; IV. of the wages of merchant seamen. By Charles Abbot, of the inner temple, Barrister at law. With the copious annotations of Joseph Story, one of the judges of the Supreme Court of the United States. Third American edition, improved by a digest of American decisions subsequent to Judge Story's notes!"

In conformity to the act of the Congress of the United States, entitled, "An act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps, charts, and books to the authors and proprietors of such copies during the times.

therein mentioned; and also to an act entitled
"an act, supplementary to an act, entitled, an act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps, charts and books to the authors and proprietors of such copies, during the times therein mentioned, and extending the benefits thereof to the arts of designing, engraving and dishing historical and other prints."

William Claggett, Clerk of the District of New-hampshire

District of New Hampshire, Court

Be it remembered that on the fourteenth day of September AD 1822, and in the forty seventh year of the Independence of the United States of America, Nathaniel Mills of the said District has deposited in this office the title of a book the right whereof he claims as proprietor, in the words following, to wit; "A Selection of the New Testament rules, given by our Lord and his Apostles, to the Church of Christ, for their only Rule of government and practice. But whose looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed. - James."

In conformity to the act of the Congress of the United States, entitled, "An act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps, charts
and books to the authors and proprietors of such copies, during the times therein mentioned; and also, to an act entitled, "An act, supplementary to an act, entitled, an act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps, charts &
books, to the authors and proprietors of such copies, during the times therein mentioned, and extending the benefits thereof to the arts of designing engraving and sketching historical and other prints.

William Claggett
Clerk of the District of
New Hampshire

District of New Hampshire, to wit,

District Clerk's office

Be it remembered, that on the twenty seventh day of November A.D. 1822 and in the forty seventh year of the independence of the United States of America Tobias H. Miller of the said district has deposited in this office the title of a book, the right whereof he claims as proprietor in the words following, to wit;

"Questions adapted to Murray's observations on the Principles of good reading, contained in the introductory remarks to the English Reader."

In conformity to the act of the Congress of the United States, entitled, "An act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps, charts, and books to the authors and
proprietors of such copies, during the times therein mentioned;" and also, to an act entitled, "An act, supplementary to an act, entitled, an act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps, charts,
and books, to the authors and proprietors of such copies, during the times therein mentioned, and extending the benefits thereof to the arts of designing, engraving, and etching historical and other prints."

William Claggett

Clerk of the District of
New Hampshire

District of New Hampshire:—to wit,

Be it remembered, that on the eighteenth day of December, A. D. 1822, and in the forty seventh year of the independence of the United States of America,

John S. Blake of the said District, hath deposited in this office, the title of a book the right whereof he claims as author, viz—*"The Historical Reader, designed for the use of schools and families. on a new plan. By Rev.
J. S. Blake, A. M. S. H. S. Principal of the Young Ladies' Literary School, Concord, New Hampshire."*

"History serves to amuse the imagination; to interest the passions; to improve the understanding, and to strengthen the sentiments of virtue and prudence."

In conformity to the act of the Congress of the United States, entitled "an act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps, charts, and books, to the authors and proprietors of such copies during the times therein mentioned," and also to an act entitled, "an act supplementary to an act, entitled an act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps, charts and books, to the authors and proprietors of such copies, during the times therein mentioned, and extending the benefits thereof to the arts of designing, engraving, and etching historical and other prints."

William Claggett, Clerk
of the District of New Hampshire.

District of New Hampshire - Court.

Be it remembered, that on the 24th day of December, A. D. 1822 - and in the forty seventh year of the Independence of the United States of America, Henry Jackson, of the said District, hath deposited in this office the title of a book, the right whereof he claims as proprietor, in the words following, viz. -

"An Arithmetical Catechism, compiled from various authors, for the use of schools. By Henry Jackson and John Butler. Second edition, corrected and enlarged, by Henry Jackson."

In conformity to the act of the Congress of the United States, entitled "An act for the encouragement
of learning by securing the copies of maps, charts and books to the authors and proprietors of such copies, during the times therein mentioned;" and also to an act entitled "an act supplementary to an act, entitled an act for the encouragement of learning by securing the copies of maps, charts & books to the authors and proprietors of such copies, during the times therein mentioned, and extending the benefits thereof to the arts of designing, engraving and etching historical
and other prints."

William Claggett, Clerk
of the District of New Hampshire.

District of New Hampshire: - Town.

Be it remembered, that on the 27th day of March AD 1823, and in the forty seventh year of the Independence of the United States of America, John S. Blake, of the said District, hath deposited in this office the title of a book, the right whereof he claims as author, in the words following, viz.

"Conversations on Natural Philosophy in which the Elements of that science are familiarly explained, and adapted to the comprehension of young pupils. Illustrated with plates. By the author of conversations on Chemistry, and conversations on political Economy.

Revised, corrected, and improved by additional Illustrations and appropriate questions, for the examination of scholars. By Rev. J. S. Blake, A.M.

Principal of the Literary Seminary, Concord, New Hampshire."

In conformity to the act of the Congress of the United States, entitled, "an act for the en-encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of Maps, Charts, and Books, to the authors and proprietors of such copies, during the times therein mentioned;—and also to an act, entitled, "An act supplementary to an act, entitled, "an act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of Maps, Charts, and Books, to the authors and proprietors of such copies, during the times therein mentioned; and extending the benefits thereof to the arts of designing, engraving, and etching historical and other prints."

William Claggett,
Clerk of the District of
New Hampshire

District of New Hampshire - Town

Be it remembered, that on the sixth day of May A.D. 1793 and in the forty seventh year of the Independence of the United States of America, John Farmer and Jacob B. Moore of the said District have deposited in this office the title of a Book, the right whereof they claim as authors in the words following, to wit; "A Gazetteer of the State of New Hampshire. By John Farmer and Jacob B. Moore. Embellished with an accurate Map of the State, and several other Engravings: By Abel Bowen." In conformity to the act of the Congress of the United States, entitled "An act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of Maps, Charts, & Books, to the authors and proprietors of such copies, during the times therein mentioned;" and also, to an act, entitled "An act supplementary to an act, entitled an act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps, charts, and books, to the authors and proprietors of such copies during the times therein mentioned, and extending the benefits thereof to the arts of

designing, engraving, and etching historical
and other prints!"

William Claggett

Clerk of the District of
New Hampshire

District of New Hampshire - Court -

Be it remembered, that on the thirteenth day of May A.D. 1823 and in the forty seventh year of the independence of the United States of America Francis Grant of the said District hath deposited in this office the title of a book, the right whereof he claims as proprietor in the words following - to wit - "A Book for New Hampshire children in familiar letters from a Father".

In conformity to the act of the Congress of the United States, entitled "An act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of Maps, charts, & books, to the authors and proprietors of such copies, during the times
therein mentioned"; and also, to an act,
entitled "an act supplementary to an act,
entitled an act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps, charts, and books, to the authors and proprietors of such copies during the times therein mentioned, and extending the benefits thereof to the arts of designing, engraving, and etching historical and other
prints!"

William Claggett - Clerk of
the District of New Hampshire.

District of New Hampshire - towit -

Be it remembered, that on the fifth day of July A.D. 1823, and in the forty eighth year of the Independence of the United States of America, Harrison Gray and company of the said district have deposited in this office the title of a book, the right whereof they claim as proprietors in the words following - towit - "The Child's Companion, being an easy and concise Reading and Spelling Book, for the use of young children. By Caleb Bingham. A.M. Author of the Columbian Orator, American Preceptor, Young Lady's accidence, and other school Books."

In conformity to the act of the Congress of the United States, entitled "An act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of Maps, charts, and Books, to the authors and proprietors of such copies, during the times therein mentioned;" and also to an act, entitled "an act supplementary to an act, entitled an act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps, charts, and books, to the authors and proprietors of such copies during the times therein mentioned,"

and extending the benefits thereof to the arts of designing, engraving, and etching historical
and other prints.

William Claggett Clerk of
the District of New Hampshire.

District of New Hampshire, Trial.
Be it remembered that on the 25th day of July AD 1823 and in the forty eight year of the Independence of the United States of America, Sylvester J. Goss of the said District hath deposited in this office the title of a book, the right whereof he claims as proprietor in the words following - to wit - "A Pocket Geographical and Statistical Gazetteer of the State of Vermont.
Embellished with Diagrams. Maltum in Vauo.
To which is prefixed, a particular description of the city of Washington, and a large number of Statistical Tables of the United States. Compiled from the most recent authorities and personal observation. By N. J. D. George." In conformity to the act of the Congress of the United States, entitled "An act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of Maps, Charts, and Books, to the authors and proprietors of such copies, during the times therein mentioned;" and also to an act, entitled "an act supplementary to an act, entitled an act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps, charts,
and books, to the authors and proprietors of such
copies during the times therein mentioned, and extending the benefits thereof to the arts of designing engraving, and etching historical and other prints."

William Clagett, Clerk
of the District of New Hampshire.

New Hampshire District, ~~for~~ Court:

Be it remembered that on the fourth day of September A.D. 1823 and in the forty eighth year of the independence of the United States of America Isaac Hill of the said District hath deposited in this office the title of a book, the right whereof he claims as proprietor in the words following - to wit - "Elements of General History, ancient and modern. By Alexander Fraser Tytler. F.R.S.E. Professor of History in the University of Edinburgh. With a continuation, terminating at the Demise of King George III. 1820.
By Rev. Edward Nares, D.D. Professor of Modern History in the University of Oxford. To which are added a succinct History of the United States; an improved Table of Chronology; a comparative view of ancient and modern Geography, and questions on each section. Adapted for the use of schools and Academies. By an experienced Teacher." In conformity to the act of the Congress of the United States, entitled "An act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the
copies of Maps, charts and books, to the authors and proprietors of such copies, during the times therein mentioned; and also to an act, entitled "an act supplementary to an act, entitled an act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps, charts and books to the authors and proprietors of such copies during the times therein mentioned, and extending the benefits thereof to the arts of designing, engraving, and etching historical and other prints."

William Claggett, Clerk of
the District of New Hampshire

District of New Hampshire - Town;

Be it remembered, that on the 20th day of October, A. D. 1823, and in the forty eighth year of the Independence of the United States of America, Tobias Glenn Miller, of the said District, hath deposited in this office the title of a book, the right whereof he claims as proprietor, in the words following, viz - "Abridgement of Murray's English Grammar, as published by the Author. With the addition of questions, &c."

In conformity to the act of the Congress of the United States, entitled, "An act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps, charts, and books to the authors and proprietors of such copies, during the times therein mentioned;" and also, to an act entitled, "An act, supplementary to an act, entitled, an act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps, charts, and books to the authors & proprietors of such copies, during the times therein mentioned, and extending the benefits thereof to the arts of designing, engraving, and etching historical and other prints."

William Claggett, Clerk of
the District of New Hampshire

District of New Hampshire, to wit;
Be it remembered, that on the twenty seventh day of January A.D. 1824, and in the forty eight year of the Independence of the United States of America, John L Parkhurst of the said district, hath deposited in this office the title of a book, the right whereof he claims as Author, in the words following, viz: "A systematic Introduction to English Grammar. By John L.
<sup>second edition, enlarged and improved.</sup> Parkhurst." In conformity to the act of the Congress of the United States, entitled, "An act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps, charts, and books to the authors and proprietors
of such copies, during the times therein mentioned;"
and also, to an act entitled, "An act supplementary
to an act, entitled, an act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps, charts, & books to the authors & proprietors of such copies, during the times therein mentioned, and extending the benefits thereof to the arts of designing, engraving, and etching historical and other prints.

William Claggett, Clerk of the
District of New Hampshire

District of New Hampshire, to wit;

Be it remembered, that on the twenty eighth day of May AD 1824, and in the forty eighth year of the Independence of the United States of America, Robert Foster of the said district, hath deposited in this office the title of a book, the right whereof he claims as proprietor, in the words following, viz "Hymns, original and selected for the use of Christians. By E. Smith & A. Jones. And they sung a new song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof; for thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God by thy blood, out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation. And hast made us unto our God kings and priests; and we shall reign on the earth. .... Rev. 5. 9. 10.

Ninth edition - corrected and revised."

In conformity to the act of the Congress of the United States, entitled, "An act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps, charts, and books to the authors and proprietors of such copies, during the times therein mentioned; and also, to an act entitled, "An act supplementary to an act, entitled, an act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps, charts and books to the authors and proprietors of such copies, during the times therein mentioned, and extending the benefits thereof to the arts of designing, engraving, and etching historical and other prints.

William Claggett, Clerk
of the District of New Hampshire

District of New Hampshire - Court:

Be it remembered, that on the 10th day of June, A.D. 1824, and in the forty eighth year of the independence of the United States of America, Tobias Ham Miller, of the said district hath deposited in this office the title of a book, the right whereof he claims as proprietor, in the words following, viz - "An Introduction to Arithmetic, for the use of young beginners."

In conformity to the act of the Congress of the United States, entitled "An act for the encouragement of learning by securing the copies of maps, charts, and books to the authors and proprietors of such copies during the times therein mentioned;" and also to an act entitled "an act supplementary to an act, entitled an act for the encouragement of learning by securing the copies of maps, charts, and books to the authors and proprietors of such copies, during the times therein mentioned, and extending the benefits thereof to the arts of designing, engraving, and etching historical and other prints."

William Claggett, Clerk of the District of New Hampshire -

District of New Hampshire - town;

Be it remembered that on the third day of August AD 1824, and in the forty ninth year of the independence of the United States of America, Isaac Hill of the said district hath deposited in this office the title of a book, the right whereof he claims as proprietor in the words following, viz - "The New Hampshire Justice of the Peace".
In conformity to the act of the Congress of the United States, entitled "An act for the encouragement of learning
by securing the copies of maps, charts and books to the Authors and proprietors of such copies during the times therein mentioned;" and also to an act entitled "an act ~~for the encouragement of learning~~ supplementary to an act, entitled an act for the encouragement of learning by securing the copies of maps, charts and books to the authors & proprietors of such copies, during the times therein mentioned, and extending the benefits thereof to the arts of designing, engraving, and etching historical and other prints."

William Claggett, Clerk of the
District of New Hampshire

District of New Hampshire, to wit:

Be it remembered, that on the 10th day of August, A. D. 1824 and in the forty-ninth year of the Independence of the United States of America Jacob B. Moore, of the said district, has deposited in this office the title of a book, the right whereof he claims as proprietor, in the words following, to wit:

"The New Hampshire Register, and United States Calendar, for the year of our Lord 1825: Being the forty-ninth year of American Independence. By John Farmer. The Astronomical Calculations by Dudley Leavitt."

In conformity to the act of the Congress of the United States, entitled, "An act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps, charts, and books to the authors and proprietors of such copies, during the times therein mentioned;" and also to an act, entitled, "an act, supplementary to an act, entitled, an act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps, charts, and books to the authors and proprietors of such copies, during the times

therein mentioned, and extending the benefits
thereof to the arts of designing, engraving, and
etching, historical and other prints?

William Claggett,
Clerk of the District of New Hampshire

New Hampshire District, Court:

Be it remembered that on the 12th day of August,
A.D. 1824, and in the forty-ninth year of the Independence of the United States of America, Harriet Livesmore, of the said District, has deposited in this office the title of a book, the right whereof she claims as author in the words following, to-wit:

"Scriptural Evidence in favor of Female Testimony.
In meetings for Christian worship. In letters to a friend.
By Harriet Livesmore.

Bind up the testimony, seal the law among my disciples.
To the law and to the testimony, if they speak not according to this word, it is because there is no light in them.
Isa. viii. 16 & 20

In conformity to the act of the Congress of the United States, entitled, "An act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps, charts, and books, to the authors and proprietors of such copies, during the times therein mentioned;" and also to an act, entitled,

"An act, supplementary to an act, entitled, an act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps, charts, and books to the authors and proprietors of such copies, during the times therein mentioned, and extending the benefits thereof to the arts of designing, engraving, and etching, historical and other prints."

William Claggett, Clerk
of the District of New Hampshire

New Hampshire District, to wit:

Be it remembered that on the 30th day of August AD 1824 and in the forty ninth year of the Independence of the United States of America Silas Marshall of the said District, hath deposited in this office the title of a book, the right
whereof he claims as proprietor, in the words following, to wit: "Reply to the Shakers' Statements, called a "Review of the Portraiture of Shakerism" with an account of the sickness and death of Betsy Dyer; a sketch of the author; and testimonies from several persons. By Mary M. Dyer, Author of the "Portraiture of Shakerism".

"We both labor, and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God": 1. Tim. iv. 10.

In conformity to the act of the Congress of the United States, entitled, "An act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps, charts, and books to the authors and proprietors of such copies, during the times therein mentioned;" and also to an act, entitled, "An act supplementary to an act, entitled, an act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps,
charts and books to the authors & proprietors of such copies, during the times therein mentioned, and extending the benefits thereof to the authors arts of designing, engraving, and etching historical, and other prints."

William Claggett, Clerk
of the District of New Hampshire

New Hampshire District, to wit:

Be it remembered that on the 23<sup>d</sup> day of October
A.D. 1824 and in the forty-ninth year of the independence of the United States of America, Abel Brown of the said District, hath deposited in this office the title of a book the right whereof
he claims as proprietor in the words following, to wit; "The English Physician Enlarged: containing three hundred Medicines, made of American Herbs: Likewise a variety of receipts for colds and old coughs - felons, white swellings - risings in the flesh - cramp - fever - to draw splinters and thorns out of the flesh - cold agues out of the face, teeth or any wounds - for the stranguary and those who are troubled to hold their water; with many other receipts for diseases too numerous to mention - Also, a receipt for making the famous Puttrege bone ointment. By Rich. Culpepper, Gent. Student in Physic and Astrology."

In conformity to the act of the Congress of the United States, entitled, "An act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps, charts, and books to the authors and proprietors of such copies during the times therein mentioned;" and also to an act, entitled, "an act supplementary to an act, entitled an act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps, charts and books to the authors and proprietors of such copies during the times therein mentioned, and extending the benefits thereof to the arts of designing, engraving, and etching historical and other prints."

William Claggett, Clerk of
the District of New Hampshire

New Hampshire District, to wit:

Be it remembered, that on the 29th day of October A.D. 1824, and in the forty ninth year of the independence of the United States of America, James Scammon of the said District, hath deposited in this office the title of a book the right whereof he claims as Author in the words following, to wit;

"Gulpepper's Family Physician. The English Physician Enlarged, containing 300 Medicines, made of American Herbs. Being An Astologo-Physical Discourse of the vulgar Herbs of this nation, containing a complete method of Physic, whereby a man may preserve his body in health, or cure himself, being sick, with such things only as grow in America, they being most fit for American bodies. Herein is also shewed, 1. The way of making Plaisters, Ointments, Oils, Poultices, Syrups, Decoctions, Juleps, or Waters of all sorts of Physical Herbs, that you may have them ready for your use at all times of the year. - 2. What planet governeth every herb or tree (used in Physic) that groweth in America. - 3. The time of gathering all herbs, both vulgarly and astologically. - 4. The way of drying and keeping the herbs all the year. - 5. The way of keeping their Juice ready for use at all times. - 6. The way of making and keeping all kinds of useful compounds made of herbs. - 7. The way of making medicines according to the cause and mixture of disease and part of the body afflicted.

Likewise, A variety of Receipts - for balds and old boughs - Isclous - Rheumatics - White swellings - Ridings in the Flesh - bramp-Truss - To draw Splinters and Thorns out of the flesh - bald Agues out of the Face, Teeth, or any wounds - for the Strangury, and those that are troubled to hold their water; with many other Receipts for Diseases, too numerous to mention. Also.... A Receipt for making the famous Pittridge Bone ointment. Revised, Corrected, and Enlarged, by James Scammon "

In conformity to the act of the Congress of
the United States, entitled, "An act for the encouragement of learning by securing the copies of maps, charts & books to the authors & proprietors of such copies during the times therein mentioned;"
and also to an act, entitled, "An act supplmentary to an act, entitled, an act for the

encouragement of learning, by securing the
copies of maps, charts and books to the authors
and proprietors of such copies during the times therein mentioned, and extending the benefits thereof to the arts of designing, engraving and etching historical & other prints."

William Claggett - Clerk of
The District of New Hampshire

New Hampshire District, to wit;

Be it remembered, that on the 6th day of November, A.D. 1824, and in the forty ninth year of the Independence of the United States of America, Isaac Hill of the said District, has deposited in this office, the title of a book, the right whereof he claims as proprietor in the words following, to wit; "Elements of General History, ancient and modern. By Alexander Fraser Tytler, F.R.S.E. professor of History in the University of Edinburgh. With a continuation, terminating at the Demise of King George 3. 1820. By Rev. Edward Nares, D.D. Professor of Modern History in the University of Oxford. To which are added, a succinct History of the United States; with additions and alterations, by an American gentleman. Supplying important omissions, bringing down the narration of events to the beginning of the present year, and correcting many passages relating to the History of this country. With an improved Table of Chronology; a comparative view of ancient and modern Geography; and questions on each section. Adapted for the use of Schools and Academies, by an experienced Teacher. Stereotyped by T. H. Carter & Co. Boston."

In conformity to the act of the Congress of the United States, entitled, "An act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps, charts, & books to the authors and proprietors of such copies, during the times therein mentioned"; and also to an act, entitled, "An act, supplementary to an act, entitled, an act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps, charts, and books to the authors and proprietors of such copies, during the times therein mentioned, and extending the benefits thereof to the arts of designing, engraving, and etching, historical, and other prints."

William Claggett, Clerk
of the District of New Hampshire

New Hampshire District, to wit:

Be it remembered, that on the 15th day of November A.D. 1824, and in the forty ninth year of the independence of the United States of America, Robert Foster of the said District, has deposited in this office, the title of a book, the right whereof he claims as Author in the words following, to wit; "General Collection. Hymns, original and selected, for the use of Christians. By Robert Foster: 'I will sing with the Spirit and I will sing with the understanding also.' New Testament." In conformity to the act of the Congress of the United States, entitled, "An act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps, charts, and books to the authors and proprietors of such copies, during the times therein mentioned"; and also to an act, entitled, "An act, supplementary to an act, entitled, an act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps, charts, and books to the authors and proprietors of such copies, during the times therein mentioned, and extending the benefits thereof to the arts of designing, engraving, and etching, historical, and other prints."

William Claggett, Clerk of the
District of New Hampshire

District of New Hampshire, towil:

Be it remembered that on the 22<sup>d</sup> day of November
A.D. 1824, and in the forty ninth year of the Independence of the United States of America, Nathaniel Adams of the said District, hath deposited in this office, the title of a book the right whereof he claims as Author in the words following, towil: "Annals of Portsmouth comprising a period of two hundred years from the first settlement of the town with biographical sketches of a few of the most respectable inhabitants.
By Nathaniel Adams. This shall be written for the generation to come. P. Adams.

Tell ye your children of it, and let your children tell their children, and their children another generation. Joel

In conformity to an act of the Congress of the United States, entitled, "An act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps, charts & books to the authors and proprietors of such copies during the times therein mentioned"; and also to an act, entitled, "an act, supplementary to an act, entitled an act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps, charts & books to the authors & proprietors of such copies, during the times therein mentioned, and extending the benefits thereof to the arts of designing, engraving, and etching, historical, and other prints."

William Claggett, Clerk of
the District of New Hampshire

District of New Hampshire, to-wit:

Be it remembered, that on the 25th day of December A.D. 1824, and in the forty ninth year of the Independence of the United States of America, John L. Parkhurst of the said District, hath deposited in this office, the title of a book, the right whereof he claims as author, in the words following, to-wit: "Elements of Moral Philosophy: comprising the theory of Morals and Practical Ethics. By John L. Parkhurst."

In conformity to the act of the Congress of the United States, entitled, "An act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps, charts, and books to the authors and proprietors of such copies during the times therein mentioned; and also to an act, entitled, 'an act, supplementary to an act, entitled, an act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps, charts and books to the authors & proprietors of such copies, during the times therein mentioned, and extending the benefits thereof to the arts of designing, engraving, and etching, historical, and other prints.'"

William Claggett, Clerk of
the District of New Hampshire,

New Hampshire District, to wit:

Be it remembered, that on the sixth day of January, A.D. 1825, and in the forty ninth year of the Independence of the United States of America, Jacob B. Moore of the said District hath deposited in this office the title of a book the right whereof he claims as proprietor in the words following, viz.
"An Abridgment of Lectures on Rhetoric, by Hugh Blair, D.D. greatly improved by the addition to each page of Appropriate Questions, By Rev J. L. Blake. A. M. Principal of a Literary Seminary for Young Ladies, in Boston, Massachusetts. Fifth Edition."

In conformity to the act of the Congress of the United States, entitled "An act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of Maps, charts & books to the authors and proprietors of such copies during the times therein mentioned;" and also to an act, entitled, "an act supplementary to an act, entitled, an act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps, charts, and books to the authors & proprietors of such copies, during the times therein mentioned, and extending the benefits thereof to the arts of designing, engraving, and etching

historical and other prints."

William Claggett, Clerk
of the District of New Hampshire

District of New Hampshire, Town of:
Be it Remembered, that on the eighth day of February A.D. 1825, and in the forty ninth year of the Independence of the United States of America, Austin Tyler of the said District hath deposited in this office the title of a book the right whereof he claims as author, in the words following, viz "A new system of Tax Making; in which the hitherto complex Method of Making Taxes, is reduced to ocular demonstration, and rendered perfectly simple. [designed for the use of towns and corporations.]

By Austin Tyler "
In conformity to the act of the Congress of the United States, entitled - "An act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps, charts, and books to the authors & proprietors of such copies during the times therein mentioned"; and also to an act, entitled, "an act supplementary to an act, entitled, an act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps, charts and books to the authors and proprietors of such copies, during the times therein mentioned,
and extending the benefits thereof to the arts of designing, engraving, and etching historical, and other prints." William Claggett, Clerk of the
District of New Hampshire

New Hampshire District 10

Be it remembered, that on the second day of May A.D. 1825. and in the forty ninth year of the Independence of the United States of America,

Jacob B. Moore of Concord in said District, hath deposited in this Office the title of a book the right whereof he claims as Author in the words following, to-wit,

"Trial of Amos Tunnard for the murder of Alfred Tunnard, before the Superior Court of Judicature, holden at Dover, within and for the County of Shafford, and State of New Hampshire on the first Tuesday of February Anno Domini 1825. Reported by Richard Eld"

In conformity to the act of the Congress of the United States, entitled, "an Act for the encouragement of learning by securing the copies of maps, Charts & Books to the Authors & Proprietors of such copies during the times therein mentioned," And also to an Act, entitled "an Act supplementary to an act, entitled, an act for the encouragement of learning by securing the copies of maps, Charts and books to the Authors and Proprietors of such copies during the times therein mentioned, and extending the benefits thereof to the arts of designing, engraving, and etching historical and other prints".

Samuel Cushman, Clerk
of the District of New Hampshire

New Hampshire District 10

Be it remembered, that on the 26th day of May A.D. 1825. and in the forty ninth year of the Independence of the United States of America. John Farmer of the said District has deposited in this Office the title of a book, the right whereof he claims as proprietor, in the words following to-wit

"The New Hampshire Register, and United States Calendar for the year of our Lord 1826: being the fiftieth year of the American Independence. by John Farmer". In conformity to the act of the Congress of the United States entitled "an Act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps, Charts and Books, to the Authors and Proprietors of such copies, during the time therein mentioned;

and also to an act entitled "an Act supplementary to an act, entitled, an act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of Maps, Charts, and Books to the Authors and Proprietors of such copies, during the times therein mentioned, and extending the benefits thereof to the arts of designing, engraving and etching historical and other prints."

Samuel Cushman, Clerk
of the District of New Hampshire

District of New Hampshire to wit.

Be it remembered, that on the twenty seventh day of June A D 1825, and in the forty ninth year of the Independence of the United States of America. Elias Davis of the said District, has deposited in this Office the title of a book, the rights whereof he claims as proprietor. in the words following, to wit:

The extraordinary vicissitudes of the life and travels of Elias Davis, written by himself "

In conformity to the act of the Congress of the United States, entitled, "an act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of Maps, Charts and Books, to the Authors and Proprietors of such copies, during the time therein mentioned;" and also to an act, entitled, "an act supplementary to an act, entitled, an act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of Maps, Charts and Books to the Authors and Proprietors of such copies, during the times therein mentioned, and extending the benefits thereof to the arts of designing, engraving and etching historical and other prints."

Samuel Cushman, Clerk
of the District of New Hampshire

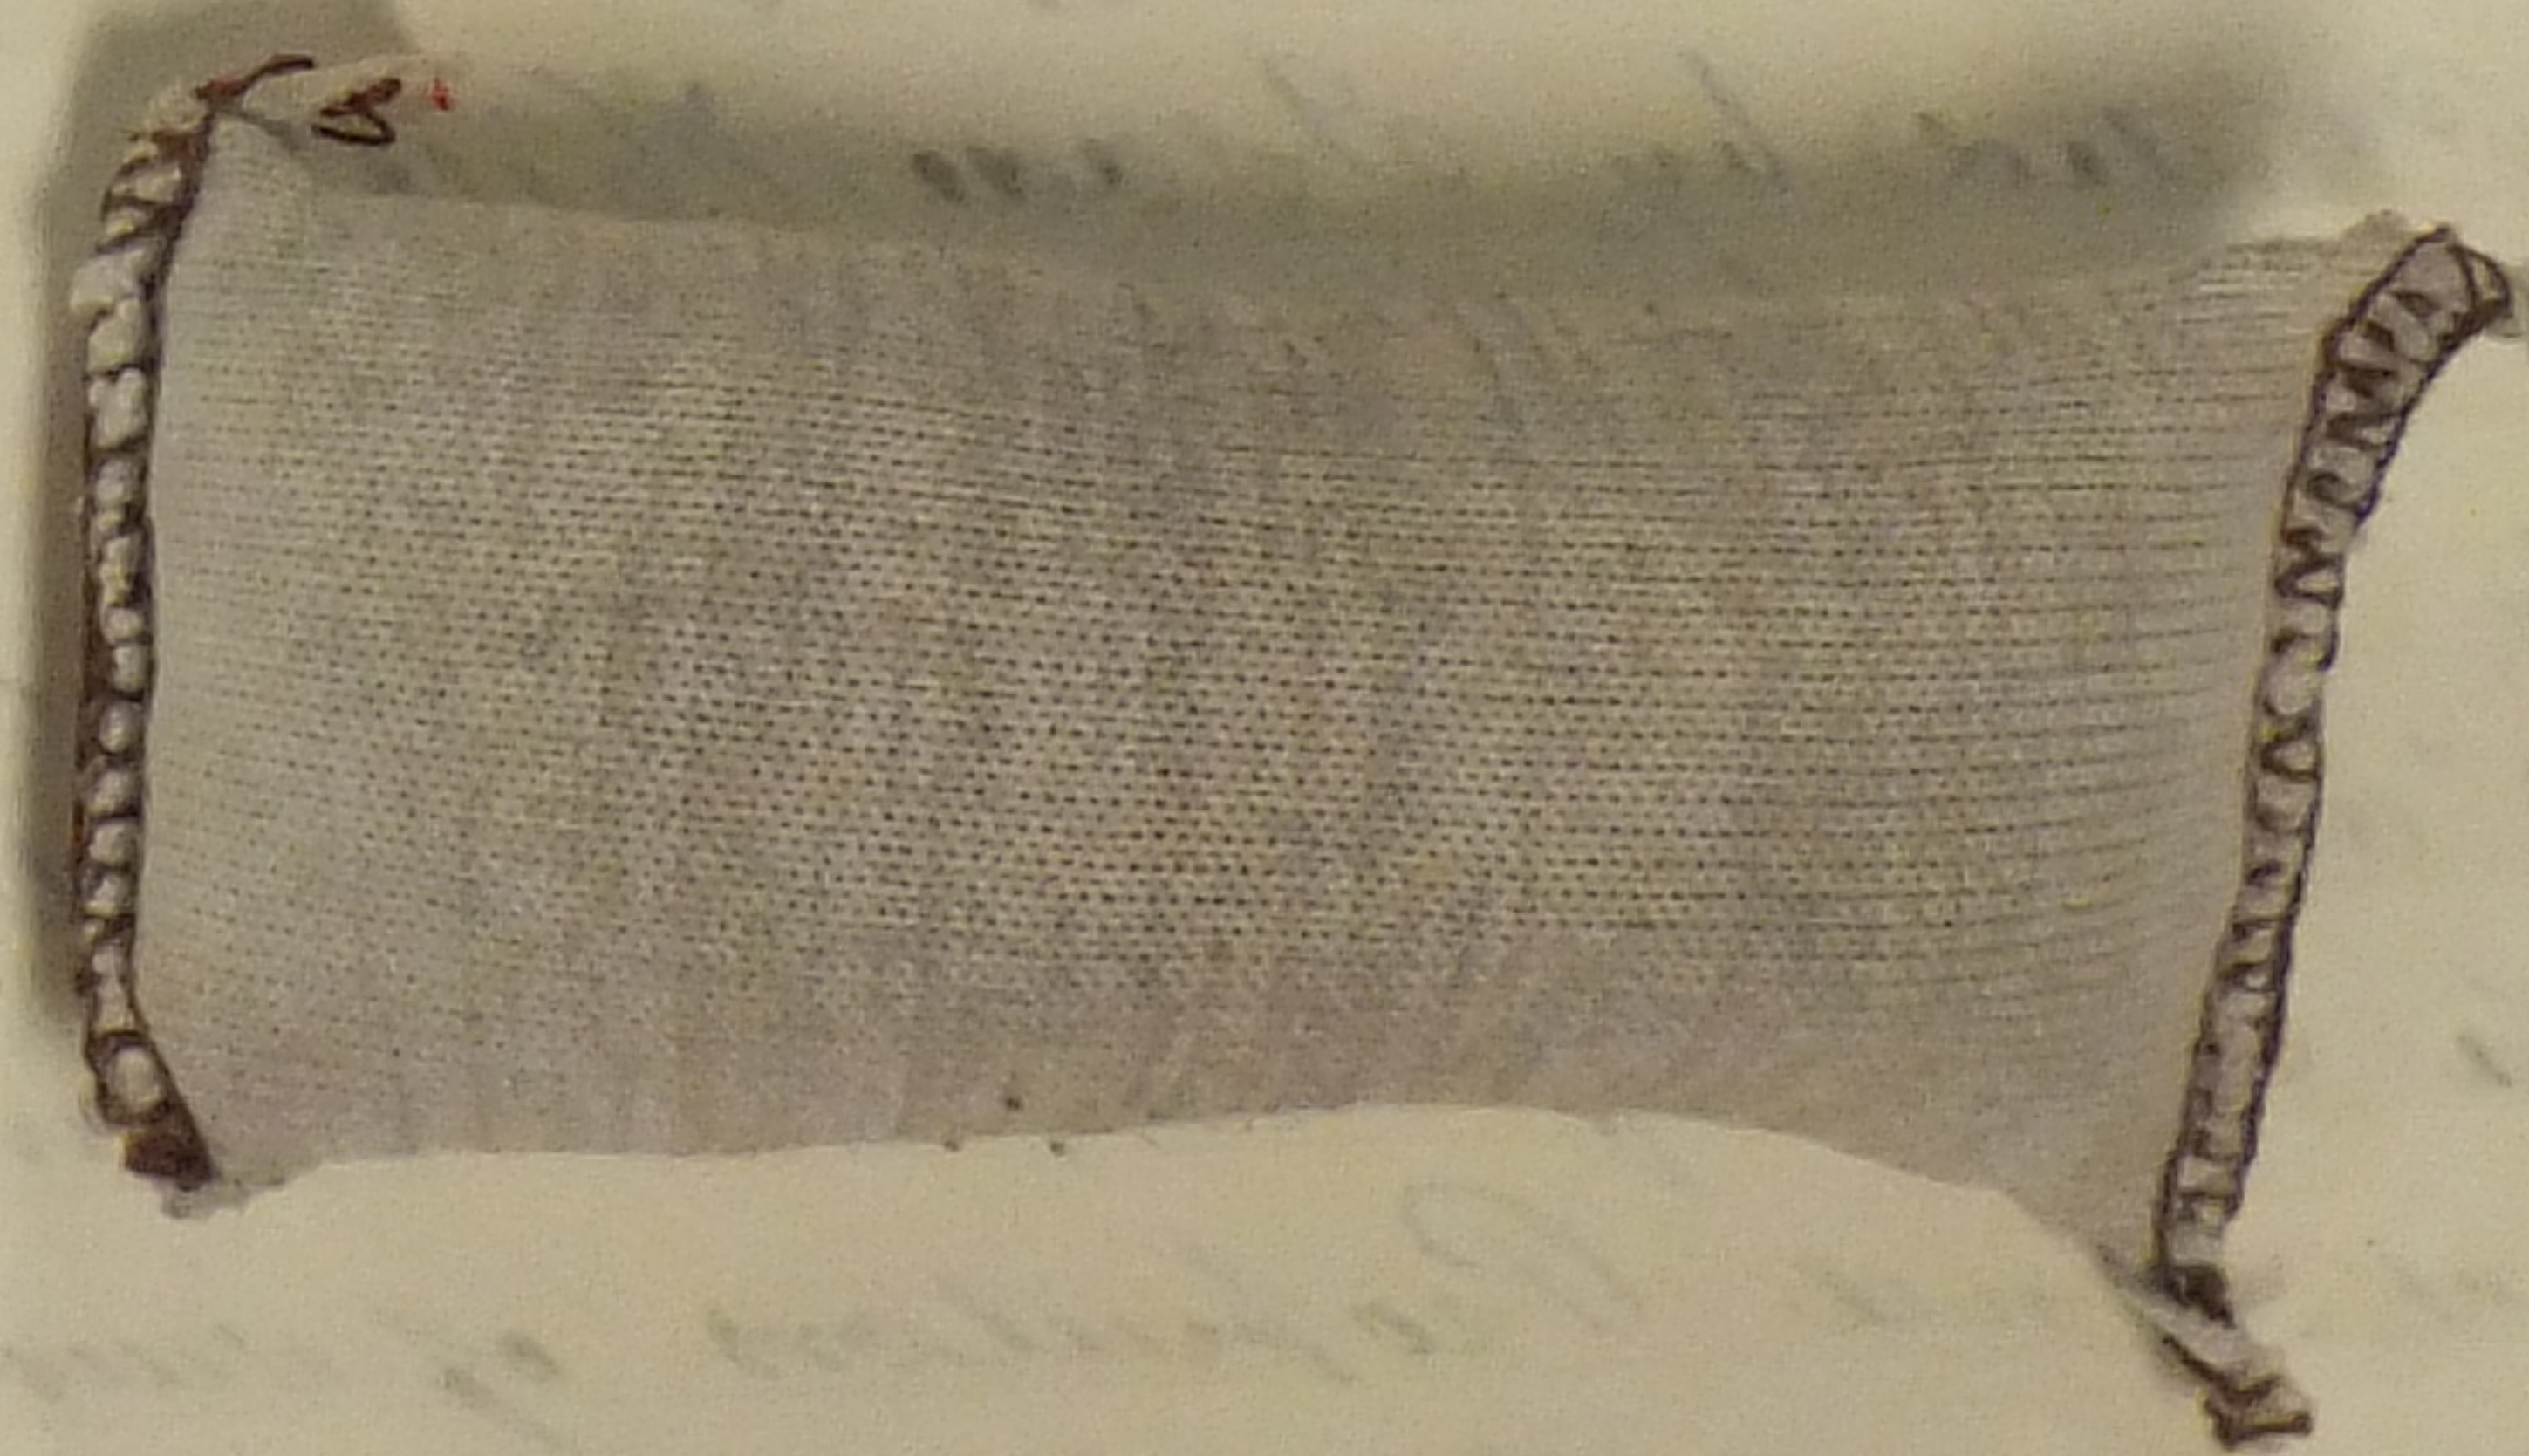

District of New Hampshire to wit
District Clerk's Office.

Be it remembered, that on the fourth day of August A.D. 1825 and in the fiftieth year of the Independence of the United States of America, Jacob B. Moore of Concord in said District has deposited in this Office the title of a book, the right whereof he claims as Proprietor, in the words following to wit.

"Pike's System of Arithmetick abridged:
"designed to facilitate the study of the Science "of numbers. Comprehending the most "perspicuous and accurate rules, Illustrated "by useful examples. To which are added "appropriate questions for the examination of "Scholars, and a short System of Book-"Keeping. By an experienced Teacher."
In conformity to the act of the Congress of the United States, entitled, "an act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of
maps, Charts and Books, to the Authors and Proprietors of such copies, during the time therein mentioned:" and also to an act, entitled, "An act supplementary to an act, entitled, an act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps, Charts and Books to the Authors and proprietors of such copies, during

the times therein mentioned, and extending the
benefits thereof to the arts of designing, engraving,
and etching historical and other prints."

Samuel Cushman, Clerk
of the District of New Hampshire.

District of New Hampshire to wit.

District Clerk's Office.

Be it remembered, that on the twenty fourth day of September A.D. 1825 and in the fiftieth year of the Independence of the United States of America, James Freeman Dana of Manchester in said District has deposited in this Office the title of a book the right whereof he claims as Proprietor, in the words following to wit.

"An Epitome of Chymical Philosophy Being an extended Syllabus of the Lectures on that subject delivered at Dartmouth College; and intended as a Text-Book for Students. By James Freeman Dana.

Sparsas Colligere foveas.

Concord N.H.

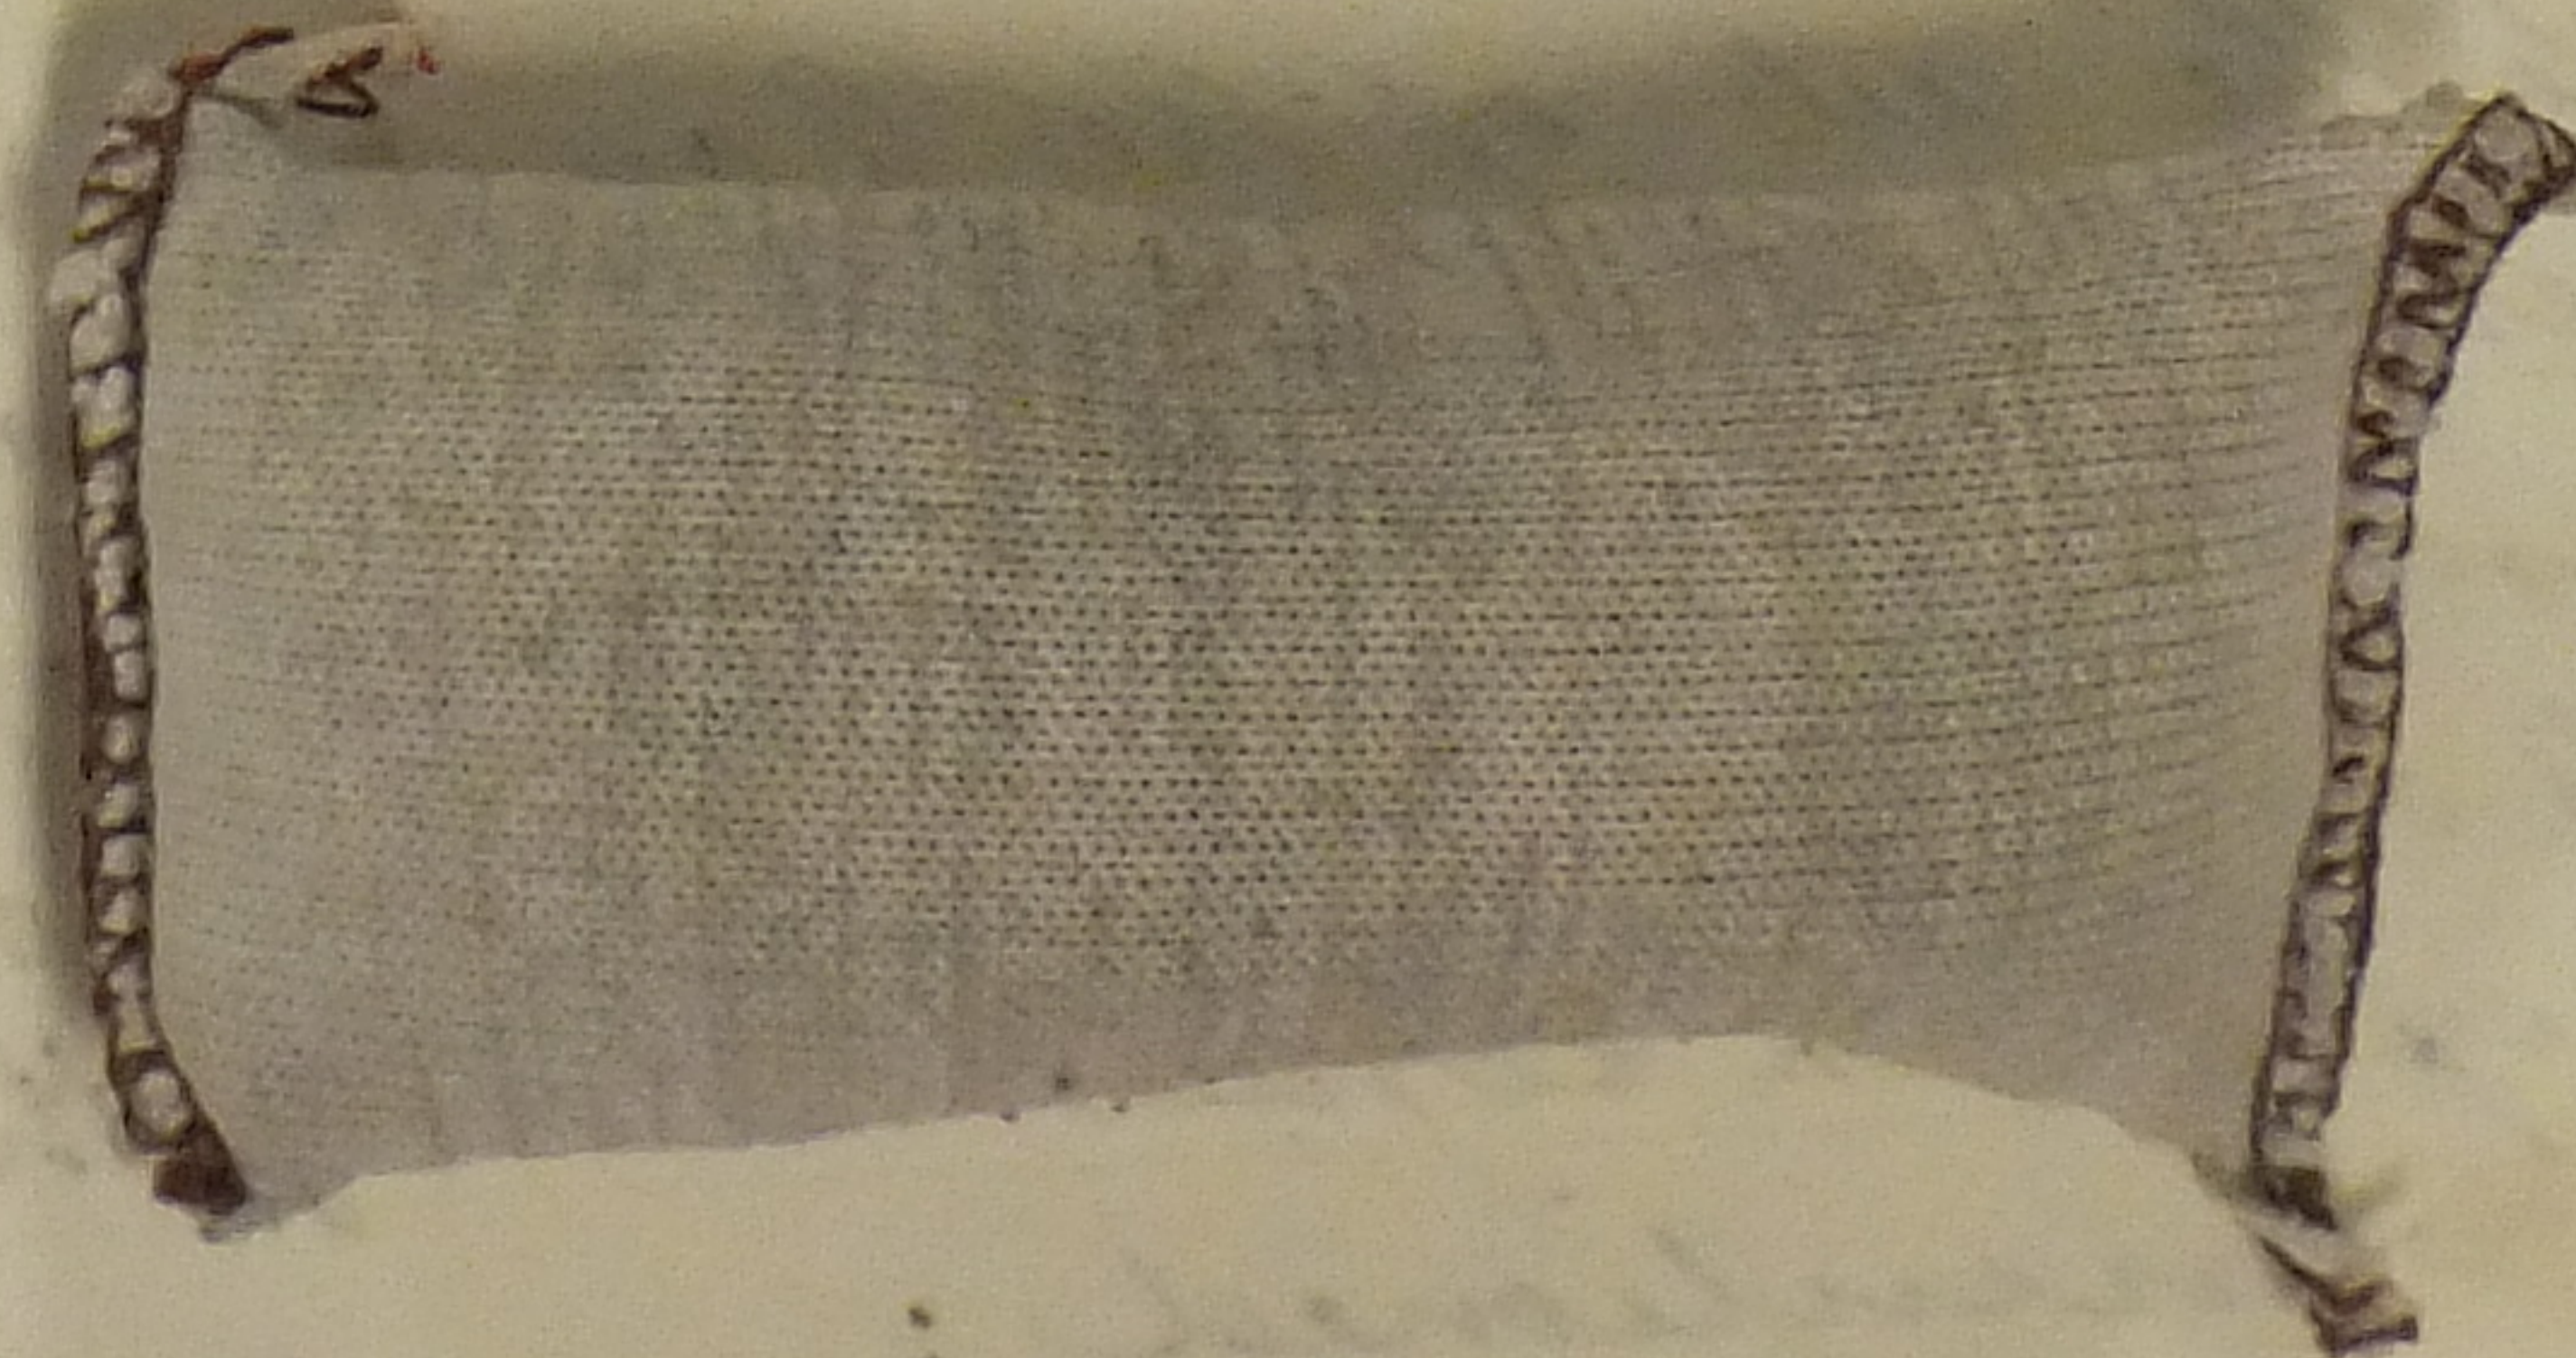

Printed by Isaac Hill

1825."

In conformity to the act of the Congress of the United States, entitled "an act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of Maps, Charts, and Books, to the Authors and Proprietors of such Copies, during the time therein mentioned:

And also an act, entitled, "An Act supplemental to an act, entitled, an act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of Maps, Charts and Books to the Authors and
Proprietors of such copies, during the times therein mentioned, and extending the benefits thereof to the Arts of designing, engraving and etching historical
and other prints".

Samuel Cushman, Clerk
of the District of New Hampshire.

District of New Hampshire Towns.

District Clerk's Office.

Be it Remembered, that on the thirtieth day of September A.D. 1825, and in the fiftieth year of the Independence of the United States of America, Harriet Livermore of the said District, has deposited in this Office the title of a book, the right whereof she claims as Proprietor, in the words following to wit: "A narration of Religious Experience, in twelve letters, By Harriet Livermore, with an appendix, containing her religious ~~beliefs~~, and an original poem. One thing have I desired of the Lord, that will I seek after, that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life, to behold the beauty of the Lord, and to enquire in his temple. David."

In conformity to the act of the Congress of the United States, entitled "An act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps, charts and books, to the Authors and Proprietors of such copies during the time therein mentioned;

And also to an act, entitled, "An Act supplementary to an act, entitled, an act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps, charts and books, to the Authors and Proprietors of such copies, during the times therein mentioned, and extending the benefits thereof, to the Arts of designing, engraving and etching historical and other prints."

Sereneus Cushman, Clerk
of the District of New Hampshire.

District of New Hampshire to wit.

District Clerk's Office.

Be it Remembered, that on the fourth day of October A.D. 1825, and in the fiftieth year of the Independence of the United States of America, Amos J Cook of the said District, has deposited in this Office the title of a book, the right whereof he claims as Proprietor, in the words following to wit:

"The Students Companion: containing,
" a variety of poetry and prose, selected " from the most celebrated Authors;
" to which are added Miscellaneous " Matters; particularly designed to " improve youth in reading and " parsing the English Language.
" By Amos J Cook A.B. M.

Second Edition.

" Concord: Printed by
" Isaac Hill 1825."

In conformity to the act of the Congress of the United States, entitled "An Act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps, charts and Books, to the Authors and Proprietors

of such copies during the time therein mentioned, And also to an act, entitled, "An Act supplementary to an act, entitled, an Act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps, charts and Books to the Authors and Proprietors of such copies, during the times therein mentioned, and extending the benefits thereof to the arts of designing, engraving, and etching historical and other prints."

Samuel Cushman, Clerk
of the District of New Hampshire.

District of New Hampshire to wit.
District Clerk's Office.

Be it Remembered, that on the fourth day of October A.D. 1825, and in the fiftieth year of the Independence of the United States of America, J. H. Miller of Portsmouth in the said District, has deposited in this Office the title of a book, the right whereof he claims as Proprietor, in the words following to wit:

"Lessons in Simultaneous <sup>Reading and spelling</sup> and defining."

"By a Teacher. Portsmouth: Printed by

"J. H. Miller & C. H. Brewster, 1825."

In conformity to the act of the Congress of the United States, entitled, "an act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps, Charts and Books, to the Authors and Proprietors of such copies, during the time therein mentioned; and also to an act, entitled, "an act supplementary to an act, entitled, an act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps, Charts and Books to the authors and Proprietors of such copies, during the times therein mentioned, and extending the benefits thereof to the arts of designing, engraving and etching historical and other prints."

Samuel Cushman, Clerk
of the District of New Hampshire.

District of New Hampshire to wit.
District Clerk's Office.

Be it Remembered, that the twenty second day of October, A.D. 1825, and in the fiftieth year of the Independence of the United States of America, Rufus Porter of the said District, has deposited in this Office the title of a book, the right whereof he claims as Proprietor, in the words following to wit: "A Select collection of valuable and curious arts, and interesting experiments, which are well explained, and warranted genuine, and may be performed easily, safely, and at little expense."

In conformity to the act of the Congress of the United States, entitled, "an act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps, Charts and Books, to the Authors and Proprietors of such copies, during the time therein mentioned; and also to an act, entitled, "An act supplementary to an act, entitled, an act

for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps, charts and books to the Authors and Proprietors of such copies, during the times therein mentioned, and extending the benefits thereof to the art of designing, engraving and etching historical and other prints".

Samuel Cushman, Clerk
of the District of New Hampshire.

District of New Hampshire to wit.
District Clerk's Office.

Be it remembered, that on the twelfth day of November AD 1825, and in the fifteenth year of the Independence of the United States of America, John Prentiss of said District, has deposited in this Office the title of a book, the right whereof he claims as Proprietor, in the words following, to wit:

"The Literary and Scientific Class-Book; Embracing the leading facts and principles of science, illustrated by engravings, with many difficult words explained at the heads of the lessons, and questions annexed for examination:

Designed as exercises for the reading and study of the higher Classes in common Schools. Selected from the Rev. John Platts' Literary and Scientific Class-Book, and various other sources, and adapted to the wants and inclination of youth in the United States. By Levi W. Leonard."

In conformity to the act of the Congress of the United States, entitled, "An Act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps, charts and books to the Authors and Proprietors of such copies, during the times therein mentioned;" And also to an act, entitled, "An Act supplementary to an act, entitled, an act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps, charts and books to the Authors and Proprietors of such copies, during the times therein mentioned, and extending the benefits thereof to the arts of design, engraving and etching, historical and other prints."

Samuel Cushman, Clerk of
the District of New Hampshire.

District of New Hampshire to wit.
District Clerk's Office.

Be it remembered, that on the seventeenth day of January A D 1826 and in the fiftieth year of the Independence of the United States of America, Jacob B Moore of the said District, has deposited in this Office the title of a book, the right whereof he claims as Proprietor, in the words following to wit.

" Complete directions for parsing the english language:
" or the rules of grammar made easy; being a " new grammatical essay, designed as a supple " ment to Lindley Murray's Grammar, for the use " of students as soon as they begin to parse.

" By Dudley Leavett, Teacher of Meredith " Academy school; Author of the Scholar's review, and " Teacher's daily Assistant &c."

In conformity to the act of the Congress of the United States, entitled, " Act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps, charts and Books to the authors and Proprietors of such copies, during the time therein mentioned;" and also to act, entitled an act for the encouragement supplementary to an act, entitled an act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps, charts and Books to the authors and Proprietors of such during the times therein mentioned, and extending the benefits thereof to the arts of designing, engraving and etching historical and other prints."

Samuel Cushman, Clerk
of the District of New Hampshire

District of New Hampshire to wit

District Clerk's Office

I do remember that on the Eighth day of April A D 1826 in the fiftieth year of the Independence of the United States of America, Jacob B Moore of the said district has deposited in this Office the title of a book the right whereof he claims as proprietor in the words following to wit

"Pikes System of Arithmeticks abridged designed to facilitate the study of the science of Numbers comprehending the most perspicuous and accurate Rules Illustrated by useful examples to which are added appropriate Questions for the Examination of Schoolars and a Short System of book Keeping by Dudley Leavett Teacher of Mathematics & Natural Philosophy

In conformity to the act of the Congress of the United States, Entitled An act for the Encouragement of Learning, by securing the copies of maps, Charts & Books, to the authors & proprietors of such copies, during the times therein mentioned" and also an act Entitled An act supplementary to an act Entitled an act for the Encouragement of Learning, by securing the copies of Maps, Charts & Books to the authors and Proprietors of such copies, during

the times therein mentioned, and Extending the benefit thereof to the Arts of Designing, Engraving and Etching Historical and Other Prints

Charles Wutter Clerk of the District of
New Hampshire

District of New Hampshire to Wit

District Clerk's Office

Be it Remembered, that on the twenty fifth day of August AD 1826 and in the fifty first year of the Independence of the United States of America Charles W Brewster of Portsmouth in Said District has deposited in this Office the title of a book, the right whereof he claims as proprietor in the words following to Wit

"Arithmetical Questions"

In conformity to the act of the Congress of the United <sup>States</sup> Entitled an act for the Encouragement of Learning by securing the Copies of Maps, Charts and Books to the authors and proprietors
of such copies, during the times therein mentioned and also an act Entitled an act Supplementary to an act, Entitled, an act for the Encouragement of Learning, by securing the Copies, of Maps, Charts and Books, to the authors and proprietors of such copies, during the times therein mentioned, and Extending the benefits thereof to the arts of designing engraving and etching historical and other prints

Charles Wutter, Clerk of the District of New Ham-
-shire

District of New Hampshire to wit

District Clerk's Office

Be it remembered that on the tenth day of July A D 1826 in the fifty first year of the Independence of the United States of America John Turner of said district has deposited in this Office the title of a Book the Right Whereof he claims as proprietor in the words following to wit The New Hampshire Register and United States Calendar for the year of our Lord 1827 being the 51st year of ~~the~~ <sup>of the United States of America</sup> Independence by John Turner

In conformity to the act of the Congress of the United States entitled an act for the Encouragement of Learning, by securing the Copies of Maps, Charts and Books to the authors and proprietors of such Copies during the times therein mentioned and also an act Entitled an act Supplementa-ry to an act Entitled an act for the Encouragement of Learning by securing the Copies of Maps, Charts, and Books to the authors and proprietors of such Copies during the times therein mentioned and extending the benefits thereof to the arts

of designing Engraving and Etching historical
and other prints

Charles Witter Clerk of the District of
New Hampshire

District of New Hampshire to wit

District Clerk's Office

Be it Remembered That on the 3<sup>d</sup> day of August A D. 1826, in the fifty first year of the Independence of the United States of America Abel Brown of said district has deposited in this Office the title of a book the Whereof he claims as proprietor in the words following to wit "A Treatise on Self Knowledge showing the nature and benefit of that important Science and the way to attain it interspersed with various reflections and Observations on Human nature By John - Mason A etc to which are added the Life of the author and Questions after each Chapter adapted to the Work and intended for the use of Public and Private Schools

In conformity to the act of the Congress of the United States Entitled An act for the Encouragement of Learning, by securing the Copies of maps, charts and Books to the authors and proprietors
of such Copies during the times therein mentioned and also and act Entitled And act Supplementary to an act Entitled an act for the Encouragement of Learning, by securing the Copies of maps charts and Books to the authors &

proprietors of such Copies during the time
therein mentioned; and Extending the benefits thereof to the arts of designing Engraving and
etching Historical and other prints Charles Witter Clerk of the District of
New Hampshire

District of New Hampshire To Wit
District Clerks Office

Be it remembered That on the third day of March 1827 in the fifty <sup>first</sup> ~~second~~ year of the Independence of the United States of America Samuel Arnold of said District hath deponed in this Office the title of a book the the right Whereof he is proprietor in the Words following to Wit The substance of Two Discourses on the mode of Baptism delivered at Lebanon and Bristol in New Hampshire in the months of September and December 1826 With some additions and improvements to which is added an appendix containing some Miscellaneous remarks on the same subject By Samuel Arnold Preacher of the Gospel published by request

He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches St. John.

Take heed how ye hear "Jesus Christ" Concord

Printed at the Repository and Observer Office 1827.

In conformity to an act of the Congress of the United States entitled an act for the encourage

ment of Learning by securing the copies of Maps, Charts and Books, to the authors and
proprietors of such copies during the times therein mentioned, and also an act entitled An Act Supplementary to an act entitled An Act for the Encouragement of Learning by securing the copies of Maps, Charts and books, to the authors and proprietors of such copies during the times therein mentioned; and extending the benefits thereof to the arts of designing Engraving and Etching Historical and other prints

Charles Witter Clerk of the District of
New Hampshire

District of New Hampshire To wit
District Clerk's Office

Be it remembered, That on the ~~24~~<sup>24</sup> day of March AD. 1827 in the fifty ~~second~~<sup>first</sup> year of the Independence of the United States of America Estwick Evans of said District has deposited in this Office the Title of a Book the Right Whereof he claims as proprietor in the words following to wit

"A Lexicon containing Two Thousand Words for the use of Schools by Estwick Evans;

In conformity to the act of the Congress of the United States, Entitled An Act for the Encouragement of Learning, by securing the copies of Maps Charts and Books, to the Authors and Proprietors
of such copies, during the times therein mentioned; and also to an act entitled An act Supplementary to an act entitled An Act for the Encouragement of Learning, by securing the copies of Maps, Charts and Books, to the Authors and Proprietors of such copies during the times therein mentioned; and Extending the benefit thereof to the arts of designing Engraving and Etching Historical and other
Prints

District of New Hampshire to the
District Clerk's Office

Charles W. Lutter Clerk of the District of
New Hampshire

District of New Hampshire To wit
District Clerk's Office

Be it remembered, That on the day of A D 1826 in the fifty first year of the Independence of the United States of America of the said District has deposited in this Office the title of a Book the right whereof
he claims as proprietor in the words following to wit "The Scholars Guide to Chirography containing Writing Books, Copies, Rules, and General Directions to the Art"

Being the result of many years experience in the formation of Letters, on a plan of set ting entirely Original, with Equidistant Cross ruling and diagonal lines, for the proper shape of Letters and distance of their several Letters, and distance of their several joining, an intermixture of lines of different colors, to distinguish the lines to be written upon from those which are to show the compartive Length of Letters Engraved black lines corresponding to the small hand showing the Length of Capital Letters Copies attached to the cover of the book to be turned out and kept constantly before the Eye of the Scholar With an-

With an exemplification and plain violation of the important rules of straightness, smoothness, Parallelism, Equidistance, and Equal Size, where the whole system is calculated to produce Equally adapted to common schools and academies By a Teacher

In conformity to the act of the Congress of the United States, Entitled An Act for the Encouragement of Learning, by securing the copies
of Maps, Charts and books, to the authors and
proprietors of such copies, during the times
therein mentioned and also an act Entitled and act Entitled an act Supplementary to an act entitled An act for the Encouragement of Learning, by securing the copies
of maps, charts and books, to the authors
and proprietors of such copies during the
times therein mentioned: and extending the benefits thereof to the arts of Descending, Engraving and Etching Historical and Other prints.

Charles W. Utter Clerk of the District of New Hamp-shire

District of New Hampshire to the
District Clerk's Office

Be it remembered That on the day of A D 1826 in the fifty first Year of the Independence of the United States of America of the said District has deposited in this Office the Title of a Book the right whereof he claims as Proprietor in the words following to wit

The London Practice of Midwifery Including the treatment during the puerpe-ral State and the principal infantile Diseases with Notes Praty, and an Appendix by an American Practitioner Sixth Edition much enlarged and improved

In conformity to the Act of the Congress of the United States Entitled An act for the Encouragement of Learning, by securing the copies
of Maps, Charts and Books to the authors and
proprietors of such copies, during the times therein mentioned, and also an act Entitled an act Supplementary to an act for the Encouragement of Learning by securing the copies of Maps, Charts and books to the Authors and proprietors of such

copies during the times therein mentioned and extending the benefits thereof to the arts of Designing Engraving and Etching Historical and Other Prints

Charles Witter Clerk of the District of
New Hampshire

District of New Hampshire to wit

District Clerk's Office

Be it remembered on the 7th day of Feb'y A.D.
1827 on the fifty <sup>first</sup> ~~second~~ year of the Independence of the United States of America that and Barton of said district have deposited in this Office The title of a Book the right where of they claim as proprietors in the words following to wit The Child's first Book designed for Schools by Enock Hale A.B.

In conformity to the act of Congress of the United States Entitled An act for the Encouragement of Learning by securing the copies of maps charts and books to the Authors and proprietors of such copies during the times therein mentioned and also an act Entitled an act supplementary to an act entitled an act for the Encouragement
of Learning by securing the copies of Maps charts and books to the authors and proprietors of such copies during the times
therein mentioned and extending the benefits thereof to the arts of Designing and Etching Historical and Other prints

Charles Witter Clerk of the District of New Hampshire

District of New Hampshire to wit

District Clerk's Office

Be it remembered That on the 28th November anno Domini 1826 in the fifty first year of the Independence of the United States of America B. W. Tyler of said district has deposited in this office the title of a book the right whereof he claims as proprietor in the words following to wit

Arithmetic theoretically and practically Illustrated

In conformity to the act of the Congress of the United States Entitled an act for the Encouragement of Learning, by securing the Copies of Maps Charts and books to the authors and Proprietors of such Copies during the times therein mentioned and also an act entitled an act supplementary to an act Entitled An Act for the Encouragement of Learning by securing the Copies of Maps Charts and Books to the authors and proprietors of such Copies during the times therein mentioned and Extending the benefits thereof to the arts of designing, Engraving and Collecting Historical and other prints.

Charles Witter Clerk
of the District of New Hampshire.

District of New Hampshire //

District Clerk's Office

I S Be it remembered that on the fifteenth day of May AD 1827 and in the fifty <sup>first</sup> ~~second~~ year of the Independence of the United States of America John Vase of said district hath deposited in this Office the title of a Book the subject whereof he claims as author in the words following to wit

A System of Astronomy or the Principles of Copernicus containing besides the usual astronomical calculations a catalogue of Eclipses visible in the United States during the present century and the tables necessary for calculating Eclipses and other computations on the motions of the Celestial bodies accompanied with plates explaining the principles of the Sciences and illustrating the aspects of the Heavens By John Vase A M Principal of the Pembroke Academy
New Hampshire

Deus unus proleto esse Archidulus et Archidulante operis "Bevero"

Who maketh Arcturus, Orion and Pleiades John
In conformity to the act of the Congress of the United States Entitled an act for the Encoura-

ment of Learning by securing the Copies of Maps and Charts and books to the authors and proprietors of such Copies, during the times therein mentioned and also an act Entitled an act supplementary to an act Entitled an act for the Encouragement of Learning by securing the Copies of Maps
Charts and books to the authors and proprietors of such Copies during the times therein
mentioned and extending the benefits thereof to the arts of designing Engraving and Etching historical and other prints

Charles W. Cutler
~~John W. Cutler~~ ~~James W. Cutler~~

~~Charles W. Cutler~~
Clerk of the District of New Hampshire

District of New Hampshire to Wit

District Clerk's Office

Be it remembered that on the Eleventh day of May A.D. 1827 in the fifty first year of the Independence of the United States of America John Burroughs of the said district has deposited in this Office the title of a book the Right Whereof he claims as proprietor in
the words following to Wit

The Essays of Philanthropos on Peace War Which first appeared in the Christian Mirror printed at Portland Maine Revised and corrected by the author's Second Edition on Earth's Peace, and Good will to men
In conformity to the act of the Congress of the United States Entitled An act for the Encouragement of Learning by securing the Copies
of Maps Charts and Books to the authors
and proprietors of such Copies during the
times therein mentioned and also to an
act Entitled An act supplementary to an act for the Encouragement of Learning by securing the Copies of Maps Charts and Books to the authors and proprietors of such
Copies during the times therein mentioned and extending the benefits thereof to the Ants of Designing Engraving and Etching Historical and other prints

Charles W. Lutter Clerk of the District of
New Hampshire

